Questions & Answers
(including Bonus Questions below)

With apologies to those who thought the questions were too hard, as well as those who declared them too easy (yes, we get both comments every year!), and to everyone who got an “anagram” bonus question! We have declared for 2012 that anagrams are NOT trivia and will be banned from the College Challenge!

Please send all complaints and/or requests for recounts to our attorneys at Graves, Dougherty, Hearon and Moody! (Just kidding, you can send all comments to Sara McCabe at smccabe@collegeforward.org or 512.879.0065.)
