

THE DAILY TEXAN

Friday, April 11, 2008

Serving The University of Texas at Austin community since 1900

www.dailytexanonline.com

YOU SHOULD BE...

Schoolhouse Rockin'

Generation X-ers rejoice! Mother Egan's Irish Pub, at 715 W. Sixth St., is hosting a Schoolhouse Rock sing-along at 6 p.m. Woo! That's an interjection for the grammar-impaired — and Schoolhouse Rock-deprived. The pub will have food and drink specials, which spells a groovy way to learn the Constitution's preamble while losing brain cells at happy hour. Request your favorite Schoolhouse tune for $5 and help support College Forward, a local nonprofit organization that helps underprivileged high school students prepare for and get to college. The event is free and open to all ages.

— J.J. Velasquez

Courtesy of College Forward

The Schoolhouse Rock sing-along on Sixth Street tonight will benefit College Forward, a local nonprofit organization that helps underprivileged high school students' futures.